CH. WAVECREST PEPPERONI
(Ch. Wavecrest Veni Vidi Vici & Xitahlia Di Napoli)
Pepperoni was shown for three years. In that time he was entered in six specialties, in three areas of the country. He was Best of Breed at all six, including the First Independent Specialty of the Italian Greyhound Club of America. He was twice Best of Breed at Westminster — three times Best of Breed at Santa Barbara.

A MULTIPLE GROUP WINNER — AN ALL BREED BEST IN SHOW WINNER — THE #1 ITALIAN GREYHOUND IN THE NATION, 1975 and 1976.

In 1977 Pepperoni was entered in the Stud Dog class at the West Coast Specialty. He won this class, keeping his Specialty-winning record unbroken. He was handled at this show by his original owner, a lady to whom so many of us in I.G.'s owe so very much — Ruth Bloore. Thank you, Ruth.

I'm smart and I'm tough,
But I sure had enough..........

I thought it great fun
To take off and run;
But the cactus and heat
Raised hell with my feet
And the coyotes were scary
Although I was wary.
Lost twenty-two days
I learned nature's wild ways.
No one thought I'd survive;
But I came back alive,
Almost unscathed,
Though I had to be bathed.
Three whole weeks I was on the go;
But here I am -- back for the show.
